The European School Frankfurt seeks to recruit a full-time teacher (20 h/week) for the Secondary School to teach English as mother tongue and as a foreign language for the school year 2017/2018.

The European Schools are official educational establishments controlled jointly by the governments of the Member States of the European Union. In all these countries they are legally regarded as public institutions. The mission of the European Schools is to provide a multilingual and multicultural education for nursery, primary and secondary level pupils. For further information please contact our website www.esffm.org.

The European School of Frankfurt is a fully comprehensive establishment comprising just over 600 students in its secondary division. Students at the school undertake a broad range of subjects and work towards completion of the European Baccalaureate.

Prospective candidates are expected to speak English to a mother-tongue level and to be in possession of a relevant teaching qualification required in the respective country. Candidates should also hold a degree in teaching English as mother tongue and as a foreign language and have teaching experience to cover A Level or equivalent.

A summary of essential requirements is as follows:

- Ability to speak mother-tongue English.
- Relevant teaching qualification.
- Relevant degree (to teach English as mother tongue and as a foreign language).
- Relevant teaching experience (A level/Leaving Certificate/Scottish Highers/International Baccalaureate).

Interested applicants should send a covering letter and CV using the contact information detailed below .

CLOSING DATE: 31 March 2017
