SCHOLA EUROPAEA FRANKFURT

What is the PA's role?

3 key pillars

1. Serving as parents voice vis-à-vis the school

- i. "Codetermination"/statutory role in various boards and committees (Admin Board, Education Council, Canteen committee, regular meetings with management)
- ii. Involvement also at system level (via Interparents)

2. Providing services to parents

- i. Child-minding, extra-curricular activities, bus (via EuroKids, subsidiary of the PA)
- ii. Financing projects with a pedagogical & social objective (e.g. Circus-Charlie, Yoga in Primary, Readings, Best Book Challenge, Ukrainian project)

3. Building and strengthening our community

Summerfest, soccer tournament, conferences, students' parties, parents' coffees, Christmas gifts to teachers, etc.

The Board members

Current members

(with mandate until 2026)

- 1. Carlos Bowles President (ex. Board)
- 2. Emese Farkas Vice-President (ex. Board)
- 3. Orsolya Kóczánné Treasurer (ex. Board)
- 4. Zsófia Petersen Secretary (ex. Board)
- 5. Floriana Grimaldi Board member, in charge of pedagogical affairs for secondary
- 6. Elizaveta Gardo Board member, in charge of pedagogical affairs for primary
- 7. Aleksandra Maneg Board member

Members ending their mandate in 2027

- 1. Thomas Jaeger Board member
- 2. Rosa Montanti Board member
- 3. Christine Majoros Board member
- 4. Katalin Bodnár Board member
- 5. Nicole Moore Board Member

Identifying parents' priorities and communicating effectively with ESF

The PA regularly conducts surveys to gather feedback to represent the parents and children's best interest.

- Our latest overall priority survey focused on the following topics
 - School Matters
 - General level of stress/concerns
 - Primary
 - Secondary
 - Location of future ESF
 - EuroKids matters
 - Feedback on Parents Association
- Other surveys concern some specific topics, such as special needs, SWALS issues, Mergers, New Morning Routine etc.

The PA Board established trustful and constructive working relationship with school management

- Smooth and effective exchanges with the management whenever a problem arises
- Dialog and cooperation with respect to the building issues between School and PA
- Cooperation with respect to school trips, student parties and additional well-being projects

Activities organized or supported by the PA
